Listing of Criteria:

1. Pick up a nomination form at the KBTX-TV studio or download an application at www.kbtx.com.
2. Submit a completed nomination form to the KBTX-TV office or mail to: Jefferson Awards, KBTX-TV 4141 E. 29th Street, Bryan, Texas 77802, before the deadline. Any nominations incomplete or received after the deadline will not be considered.
3. Write a 350-500-word biography of the nominee, which should address the nominees volunteer contributions; how they have impacted the community; the number of years they have been serving the community in different ways; why they are deserving of the Jefferson Award. Note: All nominations must be submitted on 8 ½” x 11” paper, no exceptions.
4. Submit with your nomination at least two letters of recommendation (not another biography) from individuals who can tell us about the character of the person being nominated, and about his or her volunteer efforts over the years. A person who is not related to the nominee must write at least one of these recommendations.
5. Attach press clippings, brochures or any other materials that show the efforts of this nominee (not required). “Must be on 8 ½” x 11” paper; multiple pages allowed.”

NOTE: Nomination categories are provided as a guideline. There will not be a winner for every category and there may be more than one winner in a category.

Who can be nominated?

1. A non-paid volunteer.
2. A paid professional who goes well above and beyond their job description.
3. Nominee cannot be an employee or immediate relative of KBTX-TV.
4. Youth to senior citizen.
