2019 Summer Broadcast Academy!

Have you ever wondered what it takes to produce a news story or commercial? Are you interested in learning the “behind the scenes” operation of a television station? If so, the 2019 KTVF Summer Broadcast Academy is perfect for you. KTVF is offering an exciting summer opportunity for kids ages 12-17 with an interest in learning the ropes of broadcast television and commercial production.

During five days of intensive training from local experts, students will produce their own news stories and finished commercials, which will air on Channel 11!

You will learn the basics of script writing, storyboarding, directing, shooting video, composition and lighting, editing and graphics.

Camp Dates The broadcast academy will run June 17 - 21: M-F, 9:30AM – 3:30PM. Pizza Party on the last day. Space is limited, so do not delay.

Disciplines Students will learn basic knowledge of, newsgathering, and commercial production. In addition, how to turn concepts into finished commercials and news stories.

The Broadcast Academy will cover:
- Brainstorming ideas and storyboards
- Writing scripts that focus on the client’s products and services
- Story creation
- Interviewing
- Directing, video shooting, camera operation, composition, and lighting
- Editing and graphics

Student groups will work with a goal of producing a 30-second public service announcement for a local non-profit organization and a news story that will air on our station.
